Life in a Wheelchair! - Part 2

My first 'love' in life (after Terry - Husband, Nat - Son, Bud - Daughter and Paddy - the new puppy!!!!) is badminton. I have been kindly lent a sports wheelchair from Ryde Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club and now once again enjoying badminton. We all travelled to Liverpool in February to take part in the England tournament (part of the 4 Nationals event) with categories for Dwarfs, Learning difficulties, Amputees and Wheelchair users. Our tournament was being run alongside the European Team Championships, so when part of the England squad turned up for training on the next court it was a little over whelming (similar to Beckham, Gerrard, Crouch and James turning up in the football world to put it in context).

Competitors came from Scotland, Northern Ireland, Wales and England and everyone got on, helped each other – ask about my partners false leg!
My first game was against a young girl from Ireland and she 'whipped' me 21 – 0, I thought this was not a good sign and it wasn't, but I did get better reaching double figures in further games, but in the ladies doubles who I play with a girl called Sharon Barnes from Hackney, we even won a game and came 3rd overall, by the mixed doubles I was improving and my partner was a 'first timer' like myself, we didn't win any games but we did improve our score each game we played.

My aim now is the 2012 Paralympics (health permitting) and I have got some sponsorship for travelling to Hackney for training and writing to other companies (not the best time to be asking) but if you don't ask, you don't get!

To sum up the weekend, it was a great confidence booster and I know I am capable of reaching my target in 2012 and especially thanks to my family for their help, support and patience.

So if you fancy giving wheel chair badminton a go give me a ring and we will set up some courts – 731135.

Diddy x

Husband Store.

A store that sells new husbands has opened in New York City, where a woman may go to choose a husband. Among the instructions at the entrance is a description of how the store operates:
You may visit this store ONLY ONCE!
There are six floors and the value of the products increase as the shopper ascends the flights. The shopper may choose any item from a particular floor, or may choose to go up to the next floor, but you cannot go back down except to exit the building! So a woman goes to the Husband Store to find a husband. On the first floor the sign on the door reads: Floor 1 - These men Have Jobs. She is intrigued, but continues to the second floor, where the sign reads: Floor 2 - These men Have Jobs and Love Kids. 'That's nice,' she thinks, 'but I want more.' So she continues upward. The third floor sign reads: Floor 3 - These men Have Jobs, Love Kids, and are Extremely Good Looking. 'Wow,' she thinks, but feels compelled to keep going. She goes to the fourth floor and the sign reads: Floor 4 - These men Have Jobs, Love Kids, are Drop-dead Good Looking and Help With Housework. 'Oh, mercy me!' she exclaims, 'I can hardly stand it!' Still, she goes to the fifth floor and the sign reads: Floor 5 – These men Have Jobs, Love Kids, are Drop-dead Gorgeous, Help with Housework, and Have a Strong Romantic Streak. She is so tempted to stay, but she goes to the sixth floor, where the sign reads: Floor 6 - You are visitor 31,456,012 to this floor. There are no men on this floor. This floor exists solely as proof that women are impossible to please. Thank you for shopping at the Husband Store.

PLEASE NOTE: To avoid gender bias charges, the store's owner opened a New Wives store just across the street. The first floor has wives that love sex. The second floor has wives that love sex and have money and like beer. The third, fourth, fifth and sixth floors have never been visited.

EU Directive No. 456179

In order to meet the conditions for joining the Single European currency, all citizens of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland must be made aware that the phrase 'Spending a Penny' is not to be used after 31st December 2009.

From this date, the correct terminology will be:

'Euronating'.

Thank you for your attention.
